CRIMSONWING SELECTED TO REPRESENT MALTA IN EUROPEAN BUSINESS AWARD COMPETITION

On Thursday, 29th April, the board of the European Business Awards announced that Crimsonwing successfully accomplished the first round of the selection process in the European Business Awards and will represent Malta in this year's prestigious programme.

Crimsonwing was able to win over the many competitors who have all submitted high quality applications. The competition in Malta was so fierce that the number of country representatives was extended to 15 instead of 10. After completing the first round, Crimsonwing now aims to win the coveted Ruban d'Honneur, which would bring them one step closer to winning the Business of the Year Award.

"At Crimsonwing we are delighted to have been chosen as one of the companies representing Malta. I am sure all of us are looking forward to see if we can progress in the European round, and put Malta on the map" said David Walsh, CEO at Crimsonwing.

After four successful years, the European Business Awards, sponsored by HSBC, are renowned for identifying some of Europe's brightest businesses. The Awards are based on the three core principles of rewarding businesses which strongly demonstrate innovation, business excellence and sustainability.
